RECOMMENDED RESOURCES

Learn more about the people of Afghanistan and the 40+ years of conflict they have endured.

READ:

- Commisceo Global – guide to Afghan culture, etiquette, and customs
- Islam FYI – educational resource on Islam
- Migration Policy Institute – guide to different immigration statuses and eligible benefits
- Minority Rights Group International – profile of Afghan ethnicities
- NPR's Look at Afghanistan's 40 Years of Crisis – highly recommended for a quick read on the past 40 years of conflict in Afghanistan

WATCH:

- Camp Victory, Afghanistan documentary (2010) – great look at the cultural clash between US forces and the Afghan soldiers they were tasked with training
- Frontline documentaries Taliban Country (2020) and Leaving Afghanistan (2021) – journalist Najibullah Quraishi's work on this series is excellent; the last two docs listed here are the most recent/relevant
- Midnight Traveler documentary (2019) – watch if interested in learning more about what many of our clients (not just Afghans) have gone through to flee their homes in search of safety
- Netflix's Turning Point docuseries (2021) – in-depth series on the 20-year American war in Afghanistan and how 9/11 set it all in motion
- Osama narrative film (2003) – a fictionalized story that spotlights the treatment of women under Taliban rule
