After retiring in 1987, she taught music theory and piano from her home in Brillion. She encouraged her piano students to perform publicly, arranging annual recitals and community concerts for over 25 years. Helen traveled extensively, touring 48 of our 50 states and the Canadian provinces. She visited more than 20 countries. Including Australia, Denmark, England, Germany, Greece, Ireland, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, and Sweden. Helen was an active, life-long member of Holy Family Parish in Brillion; a member of Catholic Knights, Wisconsin Education Association Council and multiple national, state, and regional music teachers' associations.
