Cooney Simon Memorial Scholarship

Background:

Cooney (Marion) Simon passed away in December 2014. Cooney lived a large life that was filled with remarkable stories. The best Cooney stories - like the one where she jumped a fence on Christmas Eve to steal a Christmas tree for a family in need - were those that displayed her endless generosity. Of all the elements that made Cooney who she was, the most noteworthy of all was just how much she gave. She was known for overloaded car rides to 24-hour kitchen service for broken families; for taking down-on-their-luck strangers into her home; she was known for a lifetime of service to Special Olympic, Loaves and Fishes, St. Vincent De Paul, and St. Mary's school and Church.

Cooney gave to everyone and everything she could. She was generous beyond measure. She gave to her children, doted on her grandchildren, and was a loving and thoughtful friend. She gave, hand over fist, to every community she was a part of. This boundless generosity was central to who she was.

Cooney lived a good life. She spent her days surrounded by family, friends, and devoting her life to something larger than herself. This scholarship was established by her loving family to benefit a student who lives life like Cooney did.
