Dr. Thomas A. Ryan Family Scholarship Fund

Background:

Tom was born in Washington, DC in 1935. On December 19, 1959, Tom married the love of his life, Joan Blackstone, whom he met on a blind date. They were married for 57 years.

As a pillar of Appleton's medical community, he is recognized as its first Medical Oncologist and first to administer chemotherapy to cancer patients there. He co-founded and served as the first Medical Director of Appleton Community Hospice, and later served as the final President of the Unified Medical-Dental Staff of St. Elizabeth Hospital and Appleton Medical Center. The final years of his professional life were spent delivering primary internal medicine to the rural community of Wautoma, WI. In addition to medicine, Tom was deeply devoted to social, spiritual, and intellectual matters and passionately studied American history. Throughout his life, he always instilled in his children and grandchildren a great appreciation of education, intellectual curiosity and a tireless concern for improving the lives of others.
