Dr. Dwight Bastian Scholarship Fund

Background:
Dwight Bastian graduated from Kaukauna High School in 1960. He was salutatorian of his class and involved in many extracurricular activities (debate, forensics, band, chorus, journalism). He graduated from Carroll College (B.A.), Harvard University (S.T.B.), University of Wisconsin (M.P.A.), and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary (S.T.D.). He was an ordained clergy member of the United Methodist Church and spent his working years as a pastor and administrator/supervisor for the denomination. He was a published author, seminar leader, board/committee member for numerous organizations, and world traveler (seven continents). He was listed in Who's Who in Religion (4th Edition) and the Dictionary of International Biography (23rd Edition). In retirement he was an adjunct professor for the University of Phoenix and volunteered for several non-profit organizations.
