Harley B. Splitt Scholarship

Background:

Harley Splitt was born on May 23, 1923, on a farm in Union Township, Waupaca County. He attended State Road School, a rural one-room school where, for several years before and after graduation, he played the piano for annual Christmas programs. After graduation from Manawa Little Wolf High School in 1941 he enrolled at UW Madison. In March 1943 he entered into military service. Upon graduation from the Army Finance School, he served in the Army Finance Department. After the war he returned to UW Madison. He graduated cum laude in 1947 as a Bachelor of Business Administration. He accepted a position with the State of WI Department of Revenue as a corporation field auditor. He then joined Fox River Tractor Company as chief accountant in January 1953. He served as a Board of Director and as corporate treasurer. When the company was sold to the Koehring Company he was retained as chief financial officer until Koehring sold the business to Piper Industries, Inc. in March 1981 and he was promoted to General Manager. Harley retired in 1988.

Harley passed away on October 16, 2012. Until the week of his death, he enjoyed playing golf. He was lucky enough to participate in an Old Glory Honor Flight to Washington D.C. with a few of his good friends. Harley was very involved in his community. Of all the charitable contributions he made, the one with the most personal impact was the Harley B. Splitt Scholarship Fund he established for graduates of Manawa Little Wolf High School.
