Clintonville Area Foundation
Jerry Wagenson Memorial Scholarship

Background:

Jerry Wagenson was a very progressive farmer who had a great thirst for knowledge in the agricultural field. Jerry and his wife, Sue, purchased a farm in October of 1979. That farming operation has since grown and is now known as Wagenson Farms. Jerry was very active in his community. He was a member of the board for the local Cooperative, and also participated as a member of the Bear Creek Lions, the National Corn Growers Association, American Soybean Association, WI Soybean Association, WI Corn Growers Association and the National Cattlemen's Association as well as the president of the board for Outagamie Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

All three of Jerry and Sue's children graduated from Clintonville High School and were active members of Future Farmers of America (FFA) and 4-H. Two of the children held the office of president of the Clintonville FFA, their daughter being the first female president. One of their sons attended a short course for agriculture at the University of Wisconsin-Madison after he graduated from high school. Jerry and Sue felt it was very important to educate up and coming farmers. Two of their sons, along with Sue, are current partners of the Wagenson Farms, which is something Jerry and Sue were extremely proud of.

Jerry passed away on May 29, 2013. His family wanted to carry on his legacy by establishing the Jerry Wagenson Memorial Scholarship in his memory, which they are sure he would have been very pleased with.
