Chilton Area Community Foundation
Josh Hannan Scholarship

Background:

The Josh Hannan Scholarship was established in loving memory of Joshua J. "Josh" Hannan, by family and friends after his early departure to his heavenly home at age 21. Josh had a passion for sports and played many through his school years. He excelled at football and wrestling while in high school. His accomplishments were recognized in football by earning awards for first team all-conference defensive lineman, honorable mention all-state his senior year and honorable mention all-conference his junior year.

"Josh had many characteristics such as discipline, sacrifice, accountable, hard worker and adapting to others," said his wrestling coach.

Following his 2015 graduation, Josh worked for Zander Press in Brillion, where he honed the printing skills which he applied to his pursuit of a printing degree through technical college. After graduation, Josh worked at Belmark Printing in DePere, where he had been employed.

In his free time, Josh enjoyed riding his motorcycle or heading outdoors to hunt, boat and fish when the opportunities arose. As a responsible citizen, Josh was proud to have been counted among those who held their Wisconsin Concealed Carry License.

Above all Josh had a dedication to Christ. Among the blessings in his life, he loved the people in his life the most; his family and his friends were paramount in all that he did. They will fondly remember Josh for his big smile and grand laugh, knowing that he always did what he could to brighten someone else's day. Those who knew Josh saw a kind-hearted person whose funny wit and respectable demeanor impacted others around him every day.

"Josh was known amongst his friends as funny, sociable, and even a peacemaker solving conflicts amongst his teammates and friends," his wrestling coach said.
