Shawano Area Community Foundation
Melvin Arthur Peters Memorial Scholarship Fund

Background:
This scholarship was established in memory of Melvin "Mel" Arthur Peters to provide scholarships to graduates of Shawano County high school seniors. Mel grew up on a farm in Shawano. After leaving the family farm he started selling farm equipment, quickly moving to the trades. Mel built a business in Georgia doing steel fabrication and welding. Later, his business branched out to a crane and commercial sign company. Throughout his career, he remained self-taught picking up machining skills along the way. Towards the end of his career, Mel became an accomplished woodworker and logger. Mel was known for his appreciation of a good days' work and for valuing learning the trades.
