Chilton Area Community Foundation
Milton H. Kuether Scholarship

Background:
Milton Kuether was a strong family man, wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. Family members remember holiday gatherings and summer weekend trips to "the cottage" to relax, swim and fish. He was a successful businessman and civic leader.

Born March 12, 1912, in Sheboygan, WI graduating from Central High School, Sheboygan and Lawrence University, Appleton.

His strong philosophy to give to others was reflected in his volunteerism. He was a past Kiel Area School Board president, supporter of non-profit organizations and hosted four American Field Service exchange students plus was a State of WI Kiwanis Lieutenant Governor.

He passed away in 1986 and his legacy will continue through the Milton H. Kuether Scholarship Fund.
