Patrick D. Van Alstine Memorial Scholarship

Background:
Patrick Van Alstine's family established this scholarship in celebration of his accomplishments and to continue his mission of believing in the power of a good education. According to his loving family, Pat was a truly special person. He was a fantastic son, an outstanding brother, a caring husband and an amazing father. Pat was a truly well-rounded individual; a serious, thoughtful and reflective person yet one who was also able to fill a room with laughter. He was a sports enthusiast as well as an American history buff. Pat demonstrated excellence in his professional life as a high school principal and educator where his motivation and caring touched thousands of young people and allowed many to reach their fullest potential. He was passionate about education and believed in students' potential to contribute to society in many ways. Pat's retirement as principal of Shiocton High School came in 2006 due to health issues. Pat's life was cut short in February 2008, at the age of 40, after a five-year struggle with Lou Gehrig's disease.
