Raymond & Carol Meshnick New London Scholarship

Background:
Raymond Meshnick passed away on October 16, 2016, at the age of 79. Ray married Carol Everts on July 1, 1967, and they enjoyed 49 years of marriage. Ray took correspondence course work from Chicago Technical College for Building Construction. He was employed at Joski in Green Bay, Wisconsin and Globe Contractors in New Berlin, Wisconsin. He was a master woodworker and earned award recognition for the fancy wood boxes and vases he created. He was most proud of the house that he built for Carol and himself. Ray enjoyed camping, traveling, watching the Brewers and Packers and fishing at his favorite place on Lake Tomahawk in northern Wisconsin. He also never missed the opportunity to watch his grandchildren play ball.

Due to the importance of education in their lives, Carol established this scholarship and a scholarship for Hortonville High School after Ray's death.

Eligibility:
- Graduating seniors from New London High School
- Planning to attend an accredited technical college located in the state of Wisconsin pursuing a major in the trades
- Minimum cumulative 3.0 GPA
