Steiner Family Scholarship

Background:
The Steiner Family Scholarship was established in honor of Leo & Jeanette Steiner. Leo graduated from Chilton High School in 1944. He married Jeanette Geiser, who graduated from New Holstein High School in 1950. Together Leo and Jeanette Steiner had a family of 16 children, all of whom graduated from New Holstein High School and furthered their education at various institutions around the country.

The family lived on the farm where Leo was born. Leo worked at Tecumseh Products in New Holstein until retirement and then he returned to his first passion of farming. He continued farming until his 70th birthday. Of all the blessings Leo was given through life, nothing brought him more joy than the presence of his family.

Jeanette worked for the New Holstein School District as a Reading Teacher's Aid, both in elementary school and high school. Following her retirement, Jenette continued to volunteer reading at New Holstein Elementary and Chilton Catholic School. Jeanette will be remembered as a faith filled woman with a big heart who always looked for ways to give of her life to serve those who needed it.
