William B. and Joan A. Ramsay Family Scholarship

Background:
Bill and Joan were born into the era of the great depression. Growing up during this tumultuous time of uncertainty and hardship shaped their values on life, family and faith. They met when Bill was in college pursuing his degree in mathematics and physics. Military duty interrupted both the degree and the romance as Bill served in the Korean Conflict. Once honorably discharged, Bill completed his degree and married Joan. Bill worked for Appleton Coated Paper Company as the pulp mill superintendent. Over the course of his thirty-four-year career, he made many improvements to the production process and prior to his retirement he oversaw a multimillion-dollar expansion of the mill.

Bill and Joan were married for more than 60 years. They raised five children and eventually welcomed an additional four grandchildren. Of the many life lessons taught, the most important ones dealt with personal conduct. They showed by example, that learning is a lifelong endeavor and that challenges are solved by using your intellect, personal integrity and always, respect for others. All five children attended college. Each were encouraged to pursue his or her passions and to use their knowledge and careers to improve the world around them. The William B. and Joan A. Ramsay Scholarship is their way of supporting many more young people to do the same. As recipients of this gift, please honor Bill and Joan's generosity in your pursuit of higher education and service to others with respect and integrity.
