Ronald J. and Audrey K. Huss Memorial Scholarship

Background: Ronald and Audrey were married 54 years, raised 4 children and ran a successful small business, "Ron Huss Excavating". The business began with his father Frank Huss in 1927. It continues on today as their son Ric Huss currently owns and operates the business. Ronald was born and raised in Kaukauna and Audrey was born and raised in Little Chute. Both were very active in various local organizations, which included Holy Cross Church & School.

They were hard workers, dedicated and devoted to their children. They lived a full life until they were called home. Dad passed in 2010, and Mom passed in 2024. Our parents strongly believed in setting goals and being responsible for the path in accomplishing them. They would be proud to support students who have the drive to reach their goals through education in this complicated world.
