Louis Froehlich Memorial Scholarship

Background: Louis R. Froehlich, a 2021 graduate of Appleton West High School. Louis was one of those friends who would help others in a heartbeat! He was a student who had to put forth extra effort into his studies and discovered he really preferred learning mechanical things. This scholarship has been established to inspire students who work hard to achieve a "C" grade point average, but whose character is recognized by others as an A+, like Louis. This scholarship also honors an AASD alumnus, John Claypool, attorney, and his legal team, Ruth Stein & Brittney Gilkes, who supported the Froehlich family during the legal process following the tragic death of Louis due to the choices made by a severely impaired, drunk driver.
