Dr. Carlos and Barbara Yu Scholarship Fund

Background:
Dr. Carlos Cheng Yu, 83, passed away in March 2024 at his home in New London, Wisconsin, with his family at his side. He was born in Zamboanga City, the Philippines, in 1940, to the late Yeo Boon Ting and Cheng Soon Tee, one of six brothers and sisters. His devotion to his family and his passion for helping others was present since childhood. His first memories were of collecting kindling for a fire for his family during the Japanese occupation of the Philippines during World War Two. He graduated cum laude as a Doctor of Medicine from Far Eastern University in Manila in 1966.

Dr. Yu met his wife of 54 years, Barbara, as an intern at Mount Sinai Hospital in Milwaukee. A resident in surgery in Detroit, he moved to New London, Wisconsin in late 1973 with his young family, where he joined the staff of New London Community Hospital. Dr. Yu founded a new clinic in New London in 1980, where he was affiliated with many area medical institutions and nursing homes. He was involved in many local organizations and served as acting Waupaca County coroner. He retired from the profession of medicine in 2010.

Dr. Yu was a devoted family man, with a special connection to his wife's family in Wisconsin, to whom he was very close. His personal kindness was apparent to everyone who met him. He was a loving husband to his wife, Barbara, and a dedicated father to his three children. He took special pleasure in spending time with his grandchildren, whom he adored. He was a man of wide-ranging interests who enjoyed traveling, especially through his adopted country. He was a superb cook, a movie fan, an avid gardener, an amateur painter and violinist, and a yo-yo champion in his youth. He loved to surprise his family with his unexpected talents.
